We are pleased to host the 3rd annual ADRA Canada Ration Meal Challenge! Please join us on November 11th for a simple rice and beans meal or BP-5 bar and participate in a special program in solidarity with those impacted by hunger. We encourage you to take on this challenge, fundraise and donate. All donations will be matched by the Canadian Foodgrains Bank, ADRA Canada's partner. Please mark your donation envelopes with ADRA RMC. To register or make a donation visit www.adra.ca/rationmeal or stop by the front desk.

The Coralwood PTA is looking for individuals who can volunteer an hour of their time each month to read with students. This initiative will help our students become stronger readers and help them achieve academic goals. Any volunteer must have a current VSC which can be obtained through the school. Please contact the PTA leader, Carole Tonn by email: caroletonn@gmail.com to sign up. Many volunteers will make the work light. By giving a little of your time and partnering with your church school - YOU can help to make a BIG difference.

Coralwood Adventist Academy's Move 58 Community Service Day is Friday, November 24. Students will be assembling hygiene bags for men and women to donate to places like Mustard Seed.
